AWS PartnerEquip: Live offers unique value for organizations at different stages of their AWS partnership journey. For emerging and growing partners, we recommend sending cross-functional teams spanning technical, business, and leadership roles to maximize learning opportunities and strategic alignment. This enables teams to benefit from comprehensive content tracks, peer networking, and executive engagement opportunities. For well-established partners with mature AWS practices, we particularly encourage participation from technical practitioners, solution architects, and delivery teams who can deepen their expertise through hands-on sessions, technical deep-dives, and collaborative problem-solving with peers.
